Our Deep condolence for the demise of Master Hsing Yun , Founder of Fo Guang Shan Buddhist temple , Taiwan on 5 February 2023 at age 97.

May the Triple Gem and his good Kamma lead him in a super bliss of nirvana.

Biography Master Hsing Yun

(Chinese: 星雲; pinyin: Xīng Yún; 19 August 1927 – 5 February 2023)

was a Chinese Buddhist monk.

He was the founder of the Fo Guang Shan Buddhist order as well as the affiliated Buddha's Light International Association in Taiwan.

Master Hsing Yun is considered to be one of the most prominent proponents of Humanistic Buddhism and one of the most influential teachers of modern Taiwanese Buddhism.

In Taiwan, he is popularly referred to as one of the "Four Heavenly Kings" of Taiwanese Buddhism, along with his contemporaries: Master Sheng-yen of Dharma Drum Mountain, Master Cheng Yen of Tzu Chi and Master Wei Chueh of Chung Tai Shan.
