

Condolences for the Passing of Venerable Master Hsing Yun

The Australian Sangha Association is saddened by the Passing of Venerable Master Hsing Yun, founder of the Fo Guang Shan Buddhist order and 300 temples around the world, including the renowned Nan Tien Temple and Nan Tien Institute in Wollongong, Australia.

He leaves a legacy of teachings that are far-reaching and welcoming for us all. So, we acknowledge and celebrate his tireless efforts to advance Humanistic Buddhism around the world, as well as for the many Centres that he founded for the understanding of the Dhamma.

We offer our sympathy and support to the Fo Guang Shan Sangha worldwide, and recognise Master Hsing Yun's extraordinary benevolent contributions and life of service to his communities.
