

Dear Kok Wei Low

Thank you for your email. I am writing to express my sincere condolences on the death of your Founder, Venerable Master Hsing Yun. My own experience of this times of grief, is that the death of a spiritual leader of this stature touches our hearts at a much deeper place than we ever expect.

Please be assured of my prayers for you and your community. I am not sure if I can make it to offer condolences in person, but I would be grateful if you would please pass on my love and sympathy to your people.

With aroha and prayers

Dean Lawrence Kimberley.
